

BABY FOOD ROULETTE

SUPPLIES

- Several jars of baby food
- Six plastic spoons
- A sack or box

PLAYERS:

Six individuals.

PLAYING THE GAME:

This game works best if you don't tell your six volunteers right away what is going to happen. Have the jars of baby food in a sack or box so the players can't see them. Have them stand in a circle and pass a spoon while music plays (like hot potato). When the music stops, have the loser blindly pick out a jar of baby food and take a big bite. The grosser the flavor, the better the effect. Continue until there is only one person left in the game. This works well at large group events.

HINT:

After you've explained the details of the game, give students the opportunity to sit down if they don't want to participate. Never pressure or humiliate a student into playing a game. If a student sits down, simply replace him/her with another student.
