

myCCM Presents Independents' Day

They're autonomous. They're free to make their music, their way. They're independent artists. Several independent artists recently elected to purchase spots in this section in order to tell you a bit about themselves. Here are their messages...

C-SICK myCCM.org/tcocsick

C-Sick; The Chosen One is on a mission to take back the streets that he once defiled and convert as many as he has corrupted. His mission statement: "To endure with power and authority a generation that never knew they had the opportunity to possess them!" — Souled Out

SCOTT CAMPBELL myCCM.org/scottcampbell

Homebound Prodigal, Scott's sophomore release, examines the journey of a wayward child from rebellion through regret and repentance and forward to a celebration of a renewed relationship with our Father. Scott's powerful lyrics and music focus on the worst in all of us and the best God has to offer.

RICHARD CUMMINS myCCM.org/richardcumminsmusic

Richard Cummins' new album, Moments, harkens back to the genre-bending records of the 1970s Jesus Movement. The album goes one step farther by actually featuring Christian rock founding fathers Phil Keaggy, Randy Stonehill, and Glass Harp's John Sferra. Themes range from uplifting notes to a friend to the search—and ultimate finding of—the Truth.
