Urbana is the missions conference for North American students hosted by InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. Hundreds of thousands have come to Urbana to hear about cutting-edge issues on missions. The teaching is dynamic, the worship is inspirational, and the experience is exceedingly rich! Consequently, many have had their lives changed as a result. Come and be transformed as you learn more about God's exciting activity around the world!

During the five days of Urbana participants will experience:

- Worship with 20,000 from around the world
  - Dynamic speakers
  - Inspirational dramas
- In-depth Bible study and prayer.
- Resources for short-term and vocational opportunities with representatives from more than 300 mission agencies and educational institutions

Costs:

$445 non-student registration (early registration)
$345 student registration (early registration)
Registration includes breakfast and dinner.
Plus flight and housing (special hotel prices for the conference)
