ALASKA CRUISE

JULY 2-9, 2016

Dear Friends,

Imagine enjoying a luxurious evening of dinner with friends, worship with Michael O'Brien and Dr. Doran Bugg, as well as hilarious comedy from Dennis Swanberg. From your window the next morning, the forests, mountains and cascading waterfalls of God's great creation are everywhere.

Whether you're looking for rock-solid Bible teaching or an inspirational musical performance, you'll find encouragement and fun aboard the first-ever Pathway to Victory Alaska Cruise July 2-9, 2016. Join us as we travel between beautiful and exciting ports of call, where spiritual nourishment and wholesome fun await.

We'll cruise from Seattle, Washington, to Juneau—Alaska's state capital—where hiking trails, bike paths, whale-watching excursions and tours of the Mendenhall Glacier take you into the nearby wilderness for excitement. We'll then cruise Glacier Bay, where unbelievable sheets of ice stand stories tall overhead in impressive display. We'll visit Sitka, where Alaska's Native American culture meets a rich Russian heritage, and Ketchikan, the salmon capital of the world. On our return to Seattle, we'll stop in the charming city of Victoria, British Columbia, home of the extraordinary Butchart Gardens.

Leave behind the stresses of life and immerse yourself in Alaska's exhilarating vastness. You'll see whales, bald eagles and a breathtaking land of glaciers and adventure. God's majestic creativity is evident in Alaska—and we will use this time to draw us closer to Him with his handiwork as our panoramic backdrop.

Our time together will revitalize your faith, refresh your spirit, and deepen your relationships. Join us in 2016 for a vacation experience unlike any other!
