

SALEM COMMUNICATIONS OF TAMPA

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

Salem Communications is the leading U. S. radio broadcaster targeting audiences interested in conservative NewsTalk and Christian and family-themed programming. As an account executive, you'll represent WTBN 570 AM & 910 AM, WGUL 860 AM and WLSS 930 AM as well as FaithTalk Magazine, all three radio station web sites and hundreds of events and promotions in the Tampa Bay region. You'll connect advertisers to the large, loyal audiences of programs like Bill Bennett's Morning in America, Dr. Charles Stanley's In Touch, and David Jeremiah's Turning Point. Enjoy a fun, fast-paced environment and team-oriented, high integrity work culture. Our outside sales representatives are in the field every day, cultivating new business, meeting with business owners, showing them how to grow their business through advertising to our high quality audiences. You'll use your marketing, sales, and advertising insight to help clients design their on-air advertising campaigns in order to grow their businesses. If you're competitive and up for the challenge you could be one of our all-star producers. It's all up to you.

We offer a competitive income and benefits package that includes: Vacation, Medical, Dental, and paid holidays.

If you'd like to join our team, email your cover letter and resume to Barbara Yoder, GSM at barb@salem-tampa.com.
